

American Revolution

To learn more about or see any of these items, visit Goshen Public Library's Local History Room, which is open on Mondays and Thursdays from 10:00am-2:00pm.

Item	ID	Date(s)	Description	Image
Facsimile of Broadside, advertising Minisink Centennial	89.517	July 22, 1879	For a good review of the Battle of Minisink, read the middle column.	N/A
Leather Framed Coat of Arms	89.540	Late 18 th Century	General Reuben Hopkins (1748-1822) was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, a lawyer, the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Orange County, NYS Senator (1794-1797), and a Brigadier General in the War of 1812.	Appendix Item A540
Letter appointing Henry Wisner to the First Continental Congress	89.545	August 16, 1774	This is the letter appointing Henry Wisner to the First Continental Congress. He was also appointed to the Second Continental Congress but came back to Goshen to make gun powder before the Declaration of Independence was signed.	N/A

Sword	89.549	Pre- Revolutionary War	This sword is thought to have belonged to Benjamin Tusten, father of Col. Benjamin Tusten, a doctor who died in the Battle of Minisink on July 22, 1779.	N/A
Revolutionary War Sword	89.550	1775-1789	This sword was carried by Ensign Henry Smith. It has a wooden handle, brass guard, and no scabbard.	Appendix Item A550
Surgical Scissors	89.573	Before July 22, 1799	These scissors were used by Dr. Benjamin Tuthill prior to the Battle of Minisink.	Appendix Item A573
Round box (made of reindeer horn)	89.610	1775-1789	This box, made of reindeer horn, was used to carry caps during the Revolutionary War. Later, it was used as a snuff box by Daniel I. Ebbets whose wife, Elizabeth Kip, carried money, sewn in the hem of her petticoat, through the British lines to Patriot soldiers.	Appendix Item A610

Appendix

The Appendix is organized chronologically by each item's ID number.

Appendix Item A540

Appendix Item A550

Appendix Item A573

Appendix Item A610

89.610