

Currency

To learn more about or see any of these items, visit Goshen Public Library's Local History Room, which is open on Mondays and Thursdays from 10:00am-2:00pm.

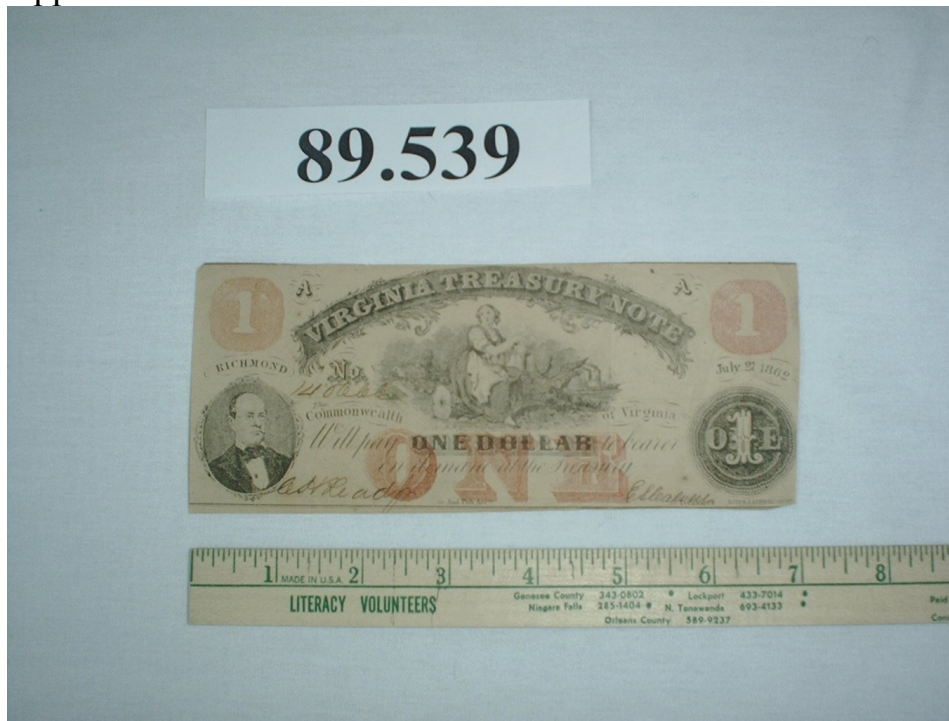

Item	ID	Date(s)	Description	Image
Virginia Treasury Note for One Dollar	89.539	July 21, 1862	This piece of money is signed by E. Sleawell, a treasurer.	Appendix Item A539
Four pieces of New York Continental paper money and one coin	89.542 a, b, c, d, e	1775-1776	These four examples of continental money were used during the Revolutionary War. Due to its lack of backing by hard currency, the phrase "Not worth a Continental" grew popular. Item a is five shillings and four pence. Item b is half a dollar, printed by Samuel Loudon. Item c is two shillings. Item d is half a dollar printed by John Holt. Item e is a coin.	Appendix Item A542

British Penny	89.597	1787	This British Penny was coined for India and dated 1787. Mrs. Elinora H. Robinson found the coin in her garden at the intersection of Route 207 and the Sarah Wells Trail in May of 1943.	Appendix Item A597
---------------	--------	------	--	--------------------

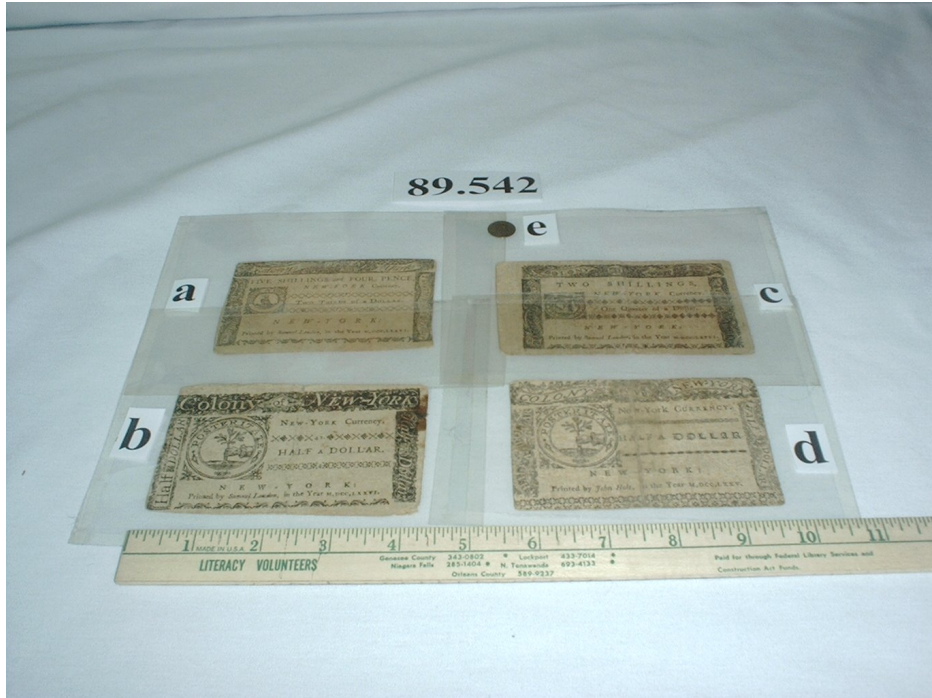

Appendix

The Appendix is organized chronologically by each item's ID number.

Appendix Item A539

Appendix Item A542

Appendix Item A597

THIS COIN WAS DONATED TO GOSHEN LIBRARY
& HISTORICAL SOCIETY BY MRS. ELNORA H.
ROBINSON. SHE FOUND IT IN HER GARDEN AT
INTERSECTION OF ROUTE 207 AND THE SARAH
WELLS TRAIL IN MAY, 1943.

BRITISH PENNY COINED FOR INDIA &
DATED 1787.

89.597