Information & Registration

We are offering these programs to Goshen residents first especially when there is limited availability or supplies. Please note that programs this session will either be Beanstalk Challenges or On Video through Youtube.

To find more information about our story classes or other video based content:

- Go online at www.goshenpubliclibrary.org Click on the Events Calendar link and look when the programs will be releasing the videos each week.

To Register for a Beanstack Challenge Program:

- Get a Beanstack account, if you do not have one already by signing up at www.goshenpubliclibrary.beanstack.org
- If you are the appropriate age or grade level and you already have an account, the new challenge will automatically be offered to you.

For the On Video Programs you can visit our website or our YouTube channel to get access to the videos. We also will be posting the links to Facebook.

If you are unsure or having trouble registering for any of the programs listed in this brochure, please call 294-6606 ext 104 for help or email us at kidsquestion@goshenpubliclibrary.org

Book Based Programs

Harry Potter Month for Gr. K-6

We have taken the annual Harry Potter Book Night event and extended it through the entire month of February! This is a chance for everyone to join together to celebrate the Harry Potter series. This year's theme is Diagon Alley so get ready for a fun filled Beanstack Challenge full of amazing activities, giveaways and prizes! Wizards are welcome; Muggles Tolerated!

Displays, videos and Beanstack activities will be available from February 1st—28th

If the Library has to remain on curbside delivery only, please call the Just for Kids Area for front door delivery of Take and Make materials

Winter Walk Family Challenge

This program is based on the book "Winter Walk" by Virginia Brimhall Snow. Rather than a one day book discussion this will be a family oriented Beanstack Challenge where you will earn badges by watching videos that will give you fun activities for your family to complete. The final week of the Challenge we hope to find a nice day to do an actual winter walk around the outside of the library! Date and time will be decided based on the weather and availability of those registered! There will also be a chance to win a homemade snuggly quilt!

Registration opens on January 1st.

New Favorites:

Books, Authors and Series

Join Miss Michelle each week as she profiles some great new books both fiction and non-fiction. Let's unbox some new books and maybe you will find your next great read!

Videos will be posted on Fridays at 4pm
