

GOSHEN PUBLIC LIBRARY AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY

WORLD BEE DAY Celebration

MAY 20, 2024
1 PM-5:30 PM

Program held rain or shine!

Join us on the Library patio to celebrate World Bee Day and the opening of our new outdoor biodiverse education space dedicated to inspiring and educating our community about nature.

- 1:00 pm Celebratory remarks
- 1:15 pm From Acorns to Oaks: Nurturing a Love for Trees
Mark Beamish, Arborist (O&R)
- 1:30 – 3:30 pm Marshes, Meadows, and More
Casey Tompkins, Ecologist/Wetland Scientist (O&R) Tour of meadow and invite to join in hands-on wetland planting
- 2:00 – 5:30 pm Empowering Energy: Orange and Rockland's Customer Services
Electric vehicle showcase, Orange & Rockland Customer Energy Services, My ORU store
- 4:00 – 5:00 pm Rooted Wisdom: Selecting Native Plants for Your Landscape
Casey Tompkins, Ecologist/Wetland Scientist (O&R)
- 3:00 – 5:30 pm Budding Naturalists
Activities, games, crafts, and other family fun
- 5:00 pm Buzzing Harmony
Storytime for children of all ages with special guest, Casey Tompkins (O&R)

#ORUBIODIVERSITY and #POWERINPOLLINATORS.

This program is provided with funding from  Orange & Rockland

366 MAIN STREET
GOSHEN, NY 10924