Art Gallery Opens at Goshen Public Library & Historical Society!

The Goshen Public Library & Historical Society, 366 Main Street, Goshen, NY, announces the opening of its new art gallery in the Pomeran Community Room. The inaugural show curated by the Goshen Art League opens on Wednesday, February 7, and is on display until April 3, 2024. The show, Winter/Literary Exhibit, features over 40 works by local artists in a wide variety of mediums that explore winter and literature.

“The opening of the gallery is an important milestone for the Goshen Public Library and we are so very pleased to be able to share it with the Goshen Art League! The creation of public space was an important goal when building the new library and it is lovely to see it come true,” said Director Catherine Lemmer.

The public is invited to view the show during library hours with exceptions for when the room is in use for library programs. We advise checking the Library’s calendar on its website for those times where viewing might be limited.

The public is invited to an artist reception on Sunday, March 3, from 1:30 – 3:00 pm, in the Pomeran Community Room. Although not required, please visit the Library Events Calendar (www.goshenpubliclibrary.org) to register to help with event preparation.

Information on the gallery and how to submit an exhibit application is available on the Library’s website at www.goshenpubliclibrary.org or by calling the Library at 845.294.6606. Inquiries regarding Goshen Art League membership or any of the art in the exhibit should be directed to goshenartleague@gmail.com.
