

GPL&HS and Harness Racing Museum Awarded Program of the Year Award

The Ramapo Catskill Library System (RCLS) awarded Goshen Public Library & Historical Society the 2022 Program of the Year Award for the multi-generational family program “Base Ball at the Orange County Driving Park: Celebrating the History of Baseball and Harness Racing in Goshen, NY.”

The program was developed and presented in partnership with the Harness Racing Museum & Hall of Fame. The program was funded with grants from Southeastern New York Library Council and the Institute of Museum and Library Services.
